

Follow the Star: Station 6 Chalking the Door for Epiphany: A Blessing

You are invited to take a piece of chalk and a Blessing Card home with you and to bless your home this Epiphany Season.

Matthew writes that when the magi saw the shining star stop overhead, they were filled with joy. "On entering the house, they saw the child with Mary his mother" (Matt. 2:10-11).

In the home, Christ is met in family and friends, in visitors and strangers.
In the home, faith is shared, nurtured, and put into action.
In the home, Christ is welcome.

Blessing for a Home at Epiphany

Matthew writes that when the magi saw the shining star stop overhead, they were filled with joy. "On entering the house, they saw the child with Mary his mother" (Matt. 2:10-11). In the home, Christ is met in family and friends, in visitors and strangers. In the home, faith is shared, nurtured, and put into action. In the home, Christ is welcome.

Twelfth Night (January 5), Epiphany of Our Lord (January 6), or another day during the time after Epiphany offers an occasion for gathering with friends and family members for a blessing for the home. Someone may lead the greeting and blessing, while another person may read the scripture passage. Following an eastern European tradition, a visual blessing may be inscribed with white chalk above the main door; for example, 20 * C + M + B + 16. The numbers change with each new year. The star represents the star the magi followed. The three crosses are for the Father, the Son, and the Holy Spirit. The three letters stand for either the ancient Latin blessing Christe mansionem benedicat, which means "Christ, bless this house," or the legendary names of the magi (Caspar, Melchior, and Balthasar).

Greeting

May peace be to this house and to all who enter here.
By wisdom a house is built and through understanding it is established;
through knowledge its rooms are filled with rare and beautiful treasures. (Proverbs 24:3-4)

Reading

As we prepare to ask God's blessing on this household, let us listen to the words of scripture.

In the beginning was the Word, and the Word was with God, and the Word was God.
He was in the beginning with God.
All things came into being through him,
and without him not one thing came into being,
and the life was the light of all people.

The Word became flesh and lived among us,
and we have seen his glory,
the glory as of a father's only son, full of grace and truth.
From his fullness we have all received,
grace upon grace. (John 1:1-4, 14, 16)

Inscription

This inscription may be made with chalk above the entrance:

20 * C + M + B + 16

Write the appropriate character (left) while speaking the text (right).

The magi of old, known as

C Caspar,

M Melchior, and

B Balthasar, followed the star of God's Son who came to dwell among us 20 two thousand
16 and sixteen years ago.
✠ Christ, bless this house,
✠ and remain with us throughout the new year.
✠ In the name of the Father, the Son, and the Holy Spirit. Amen.

Prayer of Blessing

O God, you revealed your Son to all people
by the shining light of a star.
We pray that you bless this home and all who live here with your gracious presence.
May your love be our inspiration,
your wisdom our guide,
your truth our light,
and your peace our benediction;
through Christ our Lord.
Amen.

Then everyone may walk from room to room, blessing the house with incense or by sprinkling with water, perhaps using a branch from the Christmas tree.

Here is another blessing option:

Chalking the Door for Epiphany

God of Light, bless our home. Make it a haven of rest for all in need of your warmth and care. And when we go out from this place, may we never lose sight of that Epiphany star. We mark our door with the symbols of the Magi.
20 * C + M + B + 16 May all who enter, throughout the year, find love and light; for Christ has come to dwell in this home and in these hearts. Amen.
