Beatitudes Verses in Galilee Flyer CD
First Half	Second Half	Pop-up Comment
Blessed are the poor in spirit	for theirs is the kingdom of heaven	A person who is "poor in spirit" recognizes that they need God. A person who depends on God everyday truly lives with God as their King.
Blessed are those who mourn	for they will be comforted	God has a special concern for those who feel sad and lonely. God also comforts us when we feel lost or are struggling with our personal failings.
Blessed are the meek	for they will inherit the earth	The word "meek" in the New Testament Greek language is "praus." It can describe a soothing medicine, a gentle breeze, or a strong domesticated animal. All are great powers under control.
Blessed are those who hunger and thirst for righteousness	for they will be filled	Humans hunger for more than just food. When we work for justice and goodness, God fills our heart. When we don't do right, we feel empty.
Blessed are the merciful	for they will receive mercy	Mercy is compassion in action. Merciful people help others because they know how good God has been to them. Merciful people are unselfish.
Blessed are the pure in heart	for they will see God	Want to see God? You must have a pure heart. How do you get a pure heart? Read Psalm 119: 9-16.
Blessed are the peacemakers	for they will be called children of God	"Shalom" is the Hebrew word for peace. It means "restored," "made whole again." Peacemakers don't just quiet things down, they bring healing.
Blessed are those who are persecuted for righteousness' sake	for theirs is the kingdom of heaven	Persecution means "to be put down." There are people in this world who will persecute you for doing and saying what is right. Jesus promises a reward for being courageously good.
